

Heard this jam and all of a sudden I...

dug my supercape out of the closet picked up the garbage in front of my neighbor's house gave a cute guy my number started an herb garden cheered for the opposing team rode my bicycle instead of taking the car laughed at my inner critic left my cell phone at home signed up for dance lessons shut the water off while brushing my teeth took the long way home because it was prettier and called my mom and told her I love her...
